Hello friend!

It's been a long time since I've sent any "paper" mail to you. With this new electronic age we are in we've been using computer email to send my newsletters every month or so and we post all the latest updates on my website. Now if you are like me and hate computers this may be very disappointing to hear. But if you are like my wife, Lisa, who spends hours on one of those darn machines, you find this a great way to keep up to date on where the concerts are and when new albums are coming out.

Today's world is full of unwanted mail, email and even phone solicitors so we want to make sure you are excited to get our emails when they arrive. In order to do that we will be posting some updates on the website, but we will send some newsletters just to the fan-club offering promotions and give-aways only for the folks on the email list.

I don't want you to miss out so we are letting you know now that the only way to get my newsletter is to sign up for it. That means you have to send us your email address, and if you know a friend who would like to hear what we are up to you can pass along theirs (with permission of course.) Every new email address we receive between now and July 25th will be entered into a drawing for a $10.00 gift certificate to i-tunes, a bumper sticker and a personally autographed copy of the RWH album of your choice. All you have to do is send your email address to the office at: cdorders@bacavalley.com .

Since your mailman may not be bringing you much from me for a while I thought I would send along a personal invitation to join my family and I this summer at our Clearview Ranch. We have offered similar private "cowboy adventures" to very small groups in the past, but this year we thought we would let the folks on the mailing list know. I've included a brochure and if you want to join us you can take 10% off the advertised price just for reading my letter ☺. How's that for a deal!

I hope you are one of those who come to the ranch for some "old-fashioned" cowboy fun this summer. And I hope you will visit our websites and join my electronic fan-club as I try to keep up with the modern world of dot-coms, i-tunes, my-spaces, and all the other things happening in the cyber world!

That's about it for now. I appreciate you buying my albums, requesting my songs on your local (or satellite) radio station, showing up at my concerts, and most of all for telling your friends. Your support has sure been keeping me busy, and although it is always good to be on the road visiting you – it's even better to be home and have you visit me!

Come see me soon – at the ranch, at a concert, or on the web.

Till our trails cross again.

Your amigo,

R.W.
