Summer is Here!

Can you believe it, summer is upon us! First of all, in the last newsletter we asked for rain and thanks to your prayers 3 days later we finally started to get some! It will still be a dry summer here, but at least for now the grass is starting to grow and the horses and cattle look slick and fat. Like many of you, we are headed into a busy summer schedule combined with some family vacation time so this update will be brief and I will try to get back to you again in June with a summer promotion and a recap of R.W.'s past events!
