Dear Brian,

It was such a joy to have R.W. Hampton in concert this past Sunday evening at our church. What a wonderful rich baritone voice. Mix that with his warm, genuine cowboy way and you feel like you're just sittin' around the fire with good friends. R.W. is the "real deal" and his love for the Lord and people is clearly shown in what he sings and how he relates with the audience.

We have had many outstanding Christian artists in concert over the years, but I would rank R.W. as one of the best. Our people are already asking, "When can we have him back again."

If you have but one chance to have someone in concert this year, don't miss the chance to have R.W. Hampton. You won't be sorry!

Sincerely,
