I would like to recommend R.W. Hampton to anyone or any organization in need of a first-class entertainer or master of ceremonies. Our museum has contracted with R.W. several times to entertain, and he is wonderful. He has a great audience rapport, and his voice can be strong and energetic and beautiful and sensitive. Recently, we asked R.W. if he would perform the duties of master of ceremonies for a large awards presentation dinner and program. This was new territory for our organization — we only knew of him as a singer. I can tell you in no uncertain terms that R.W. Hampton can do it all. We were so impressed and pleased with the job he did for us, singing a couple of songs and taking command of the stage as emcee. I believe this entertainer is as professional as they come. Give him a full script and he can make it come alive, or just turn him loose on stage, and he'll have the audience in the palm of his hands. You can't go wrong with R.W. Hampton on your calendar.
